UKRAINIAN TROOPS READY TO ATTACK RUMANIA'S ARMY

Army Has Been Mobilized To Meet Assault London Mail Learns

BOLSHEVIST FORCES TAKE KIEV, WIRELESS SAYS

Part of Gen. Petlura's Garrison Goes Over To Army of Reds

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Feb. 2.—Ukrainian troops are preparing to attack Rumania, which is said to have mobilized its forces to meet the assault, according to Copenhagen advices to the Mail.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Warsaw, Friday, Jan. 31.—(By Wireless via Vienna)—Kiev has been taken by the Bolshevik troops, General Petlura's troops partially going over to the enemy.

The Ukraine government has been moved from Kiev to Winnitsa to the southwest. Railway communication with Kiev is cut off at Kovel. The Czech-Slovaks are bitterly denounced here because of recent events in the duchy of Teschen. Lieutenant Reginald Foster, the American army representative to the peace commission, is reported to have asked Dr. T. G. Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia, if the allies had given permission for the Czechs to attack the Poles. Dr. Masaryk is said to have replied in the negative, but is reported to have added that the territory is necessary for the development of Czechoslovakia.

It is rumored that the Czech-Slovaks planned to get control of Polish oil lands in central Galicia and it is alleged that they have already made a bargain with this object in view with the Rutenians. Dr. Stanislaus Grabsky, a member of the Paris council here declared to the Associated Press recently that Dr. Masaryk told him long ago that there was never a possibility of trouble between the Czechs and Poles. Dr. Grabsky stated that his sister, Mrs. Sophia Kiedram, an author, and a member of the Teschen committee, was arrested at her home at Dombrowa and her young son was killed by the Czechs. He said that six other boys were shot by Czechs for resisting.

The cold wave has resulted in the deaths of hundreds, especially babies, who were frozen to death while being transported on railway trains. (This probably refers to refugees fleeing from Warsaw to escape from the advancing Bolsheviks).

Telegraph lines and railways in the direction of Vienna were cut by the Czech-Slovaks last Thursday.

SAYS 37TH WILL FOLLOW 83RD DIV.

Former Ohio Newspaper Man Says Ohio Guard Division Pulled Into Lemans Jan. 1.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Feb. 3.—The 37th (Ohio) national guard division is closely following the 83rd (Ohio) division in returning home for demobilization, according to Otto Mischka, regimental sergeant major, headquarters of the 32nd Infantry, a former newspaper man of Elvira, Ohio, who arrived here Saturday.

The 37th Division composed of Ohio guardsmen, pulled into the American embarkation camp at Lemans on Jan. 1, the date the 83rd division boarded trains for Brest, Mischka said. The 37th was held more intact than any other Ohio unit sent overseas.

Just before the 83rd division embarked it was heard from semi-official circles that the 37th division was preparing to entrain for a seaport. The 83rd spent 20 days at Brest and it is believed that the 37th will make better time in passing through that seaport. It is generally believed that the 37th will have landed in the states before the end of the month.

The 83rd on quitting Lemans left behind 900 men many of them Ohioans to fill up the 37th division.

CONFESS TO THEFT; CASE IS DISMISSED

Jess Davis, G. W. White and Mike McGinnis, arrested Friday afternoon, charged with the theft of 17 chickens from Mrs. Catherine Piers in Wilson street and eight from Mrs. Lucy Wilson in West Poplar street, were discharged in police court for want of prosecution. Chief Sheridan, assisted by Officers Gorman, Donnelly, Stewart and Kunkle, discovered where the chickens had been sold and arrested the men. White confessed to Chief Sheridan and Jailer Abbott, telling how the chickens were stolen after a lock had been forced on the Piers coop, but a settler was made with the owners of the stolen poultry and they did not appear in court to prosecute.

SISTERS ESCORT TOTS TO SAFETY

Explosion Near Orphan Asylum Endangers Lives—Colgate Plant is Damaged by Fire.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 3.—Chemicals exploding in the laboratory of the soap making plant of Colgate and company this afternoon started a fire which spread to adjoining buildings and threatened the destruction of the entire plant.

Continuing explosions in the laboratory made the fire difficult to fight. Ambulances were called when it was reported that there had been a number of victims of the explosion. Employees in other buildings of the plant numbering about 3,000 marched out in safety. An orphan asylum nearby also was threatened and several hundred children were led by runs to a dormitory farthest from the fire. The Colgate plant occupies an entire block.

HINES IS OPPOSED TO OWNERSHIP OF U. S. RAILROADS

Does Not Believe Plan For Five-Year Control Means Such Action

WANTS NATION REPRESENTED ON ROAD DIRECTORATES

Wants Capital Fixed to Equal Real Value of Property Involved

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Feb. 3.—Director General Hines, testifying today before the senate interstate commerce committee for the first time since his appointment as railroad head, declared he did not believe in government ownership but in organization of a few big railway companies subject to close government supervision.

"I do not believe there is anything substantial in the argument that a five year extension of government ownership would necessarily mean government ownership," Mr. Hines said. "I do not personally believe in government ownership. I believe that there can be a form of radically reconstructed private ownership with such close government supervision including government representation on the boards of directors as will give the public and labor all the benefits of government ownership and at the same time will preserve the benefits of private and self interested initiative and will avoid the political difficulties which perhaps inseparable from government ownership." Mr. Hines said. "I believe that there can be a form of radically reconstructed private ownership with such close government supervision including government representation on the boards of directors as will give the public and labor all the benefits of government ownership and at the same time will preserve the benefits of private and self interested initiative and will avoid the political difficulties which perhaps inseparable from government ownership."

"I believe that all the objects which I think must be achieved in order to obtain a permanent solution can be accomplished through the creation of a comparatively few railroad companies which will have capitalization equal only to the real value of the property and which will have a moderate guaranteed return with the right to purchase moderately in any additional profit."

To permit development of a comprehensive and permanent solution, Mr. Hines renewed Mr. McAdoo's recommendation for a five year extension of government control, and explained that if this were not the public believed it would be best for all interests concerned to relinquish government control without waiting for expiration of the 21 month period provided by existing law.

Discussing the reasons for taking more time for considering legislation he said: "A very strong feeling prevails that this question is being pushed now by the railroad executives because they feel that the going is particularly good and that they had better make private management hay while the anti-government ownership situation continues to shine. I do not believe a solution in this spirit is going to satisfy the public."

So far as physical operations are concerned, said the director general, there is now no emergency which calls on the government to continue control of the railroads. He explained that the methods adopted by the railroad administration during the war now are open to reconsideration in light of peace conditions, adding that this had been Mr. McAdoo's attitude.

Mr. Hines presented the following arguments for a five year extension: "It will give advocates of government ownership full opportunity to press their views without being influenced by the temporary reaction against government control."

"It will remove the necessity for undue haste in solving such a big program as the future of the railroads."

"It will stabilize employment and wage conditions, permit presentation of a big program of improvements and extensions; help to take up the slack in employment and materials during the critical period of readjustment."

NEWARK PEOPLE "ADOPT" 35 TOTS LEFT FATHERLESS IN FRANCE

There are still many fatherless children in France, who need the care of home, and money to sustain them. The committee for the Fatherless Children of France, organized in this city a few months ago has met with much encouragement, but it feels that as the war becomes better known, many individuals and groups will undertake the care of a child for a year. The small amount of $36.50 will maintain a child for a year in its mother's home.

Many seem under the impression that the child must be brought to this country to undertake his care. That is a mistaken idea. The agreement of a few friends, or of clubs may make it easy to care for a child for a year.

Only those children whose fathers lost their lives on the battlefield of France are taken under the care of this society and each case is thoroughly investigated. There are more than a million fatherless children in France. The society is carrying on the work of relief and earnestly asks the interest and financial aid of any individuals, groups of persons to care for the children. This work may be taken up by clubs, factories, classes in Sunday school or day schools. The money may be paid quarterly, semi-annually or yearly.

The committee has the names and addresses of 35 children in France and anyone desiring to care for a child can call members of the following committee: Mrs. Edward Thomas, chairman; Mrs. E. C. Wright, treasurer; Mrs. Charles W. Montgomery, Mrs. Frank Merion and Mrs. Mary Neal Hamilton.

The Rotary club has pledged the support of five children and the following individuals or groups have undertaken the support of one child each: The Styron Berge Co., Mrs. Chas. W. Montgomery, Mrs. Frank Merion, Mrs. Edward Thomas, Dr. J. G. Shiver, Dr. Stephen C. Priest, The A. E. C. Girls, Miss Margaret Fuller, leader; Miss Irene Jones, in memory of Mrs. J. J. Carroll, French class in high school, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Grubb, Johnstown; A. L. Thomas, Misses Sarah Buckingham, Mary Buckingham, Cornelia Webb and Mrs. J. H. Glover; Mrs. J. R. Fitzgibbon, Mrs. Frank P. Kennedy, Mrs. A. J. Wilson, Ulfar, The Marine Bouche club, high school, Miss Mary S. Wright, leader. This club was named for the French child it has "adopted."

ILLNESS AT HOME LICKING FARMERS TO GET DISCHARGE WILL GET LOANS

War Department Authorizes Release of Men in Service Overseas Under Certain Conditions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Feb. 3.—General Pershing has been authorized by the war department to send home for immediate discharge from the army any drafted or enlisted man who presents convincing evidence of sickness or other distress in his family. The department announced today that men may make their own requests for discharge, or the request may be made direct to General Pershing by letter or cable by a member of the soldier's family or other interested and responsible persons, accompanied by sufficient testimony that sickness or other distress exists.

General Pershing also has been authorized to discharge in Europe on their own application men who have good reasons for leaving the army and who waive any claim for war travel allowance from Europe to the United States. Men so discharged will be paid travel allowances from their station in Europe to the port of embarkation and from Hoboken, N. J., to the place of enlistment or induction into the service.

"It must be understood," says the department's announcement, "that discharges on furloughs of this kind will be given only in exceptional cases. Requests for discharge must clearly show that the illness is of such a critical nature as will require the soldier's immediate presence or that distress in a man's family is such as cannot be relieved by allowances of money made under the war risk insurance act."

URGES UNIVERSAL TAX AS SINKING FUND FOR ALLIES

Italian Suggests Plan Ultimately to Cancel Great War Debts

ENEMY STATES MUST PAY WAR DAMAGE TO VICTIMS

Tax and Indemnities Would Go Into Common Fund For Allies

Paris, Sunday, Feb. 2.—A universal tax, the proceeds of which would be put into a common fund along with the indemnities Germany should be made to pay, is proposed by Senator Crespi, of the Italian delegation to the peace conference, in the proposition he has made for the establishment of a single "financial front" for the allies. The tax would furnish interest on that portion of the debts of the allies which Germany had not paid and provide a sinking fund for ultimately cancelling the debts.

Senator Crespi, who said his proposal for a single allied financial front had been well received by allied ministers, declared that his great point was that the central empires as a whole must be forced to compensate the allies for the war damages they have suffered. Responsibility was collective, he said, and all the enemy states would have to pay in proportion to their wealth. "On the other hand, all the allies have suffered immense losses and they must all benefit from the indemnities which the enemy is to pay," he said.

Each one should receive in proportion to the effort it has made. Thus smaller states that have spent more than larger ones should receive larger indemnities in proportion. Absolute fairness ought to be proposed in the division of indemnities. The simplest way to carry out the actual distribution would be to put the entire fund into a common pool which could be periodically apportioned among the different nations. The fund should be augmented by taxes of a universal character levied on all states, enemy, allied or neutral, the last named having benefited from the enemy's misdeeds. Such taxes might be levied on exports and imports and also on coal and raw materials. It seems to me only fair that countries which have benefited and even grown rich through the suffering and sacrifices of the allies should be made to help compensate the allies. Such a tax would not weigh more heavily on one state than on another, since it would be universal. It would merely have the effect of raising prices on some certain particular products in all countries alike. The enemy should be forced to pay off as soon as possible the allies' debts. The internal tax would furnish interest on the rest and a sinking fund for paying it off eventually. In my opinion the enemy ought to be allowed to pay, not only in gold, but in raw materials and finished products.

SALOON ORDINANCE UPHELD BY COURT

Court Holds That Nothing In Measure Is Beyond Power of City Council.

Newark saloonists lost the first stage of their fight against recent ordinances passed by the city council, forbidding the sale of liquor except that drunk in the places where it is sold, to salaried residents of the city, when Judge Fulton in common pleas court held that there was nothing in the ordinance that was beyond the power of council.

The case was that of John W. Brown vs. The City of Newark. H. A. Atherton, mayor, and James Sheridan, chief of police.

The suit was brought to restrain the enforcement of an ordinance making it unlawful and an offense, punishable by fine and imprisonment for the non-payment of the fine, to sell, or deliver to such resident of said city such liquors shall be delivered by such dealer to the bona fide residence of such bona fide resident, and said dealer shall cause to be kept in his principal office in said city a record of each and every sale, delivery or gift.

After the court had rendered a decision finding that there was nothing in the ordinance which is beyond the power of the council, the petition of the plaintiff, Phil B. Smythe, stated to the court that he desired to present to the court evidence and cite authorities upon the question as to whether or not the ordinance is properly an emergency ordinance. The court allowed counsel for the parties to file affidavits in support of their contentions.

Under its provisions more than 50,000,000 acres of oil, gas, coal, phosphates and sodium public lands may be opened for prospecting under a leasing and patent system, which, according to Senator Pittman, chairman of the senate managers, also will bring about settlements of the dispute over the development of the California and Wyoming oil reserves.

LIBERIA IS REACHING OUT

Tribes of That Country, It is Said, Are Accepting the Teachings of the Missionaries.

Plenyono Gbe Wolo, a Liberian of the Kru tribe, who graduated from Columbia university, says:

There never has been a scientific census of Liberia, but the population is estimated at from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000, and not more than 15,000 are Americo-Liberians, the descendants of liberated slaves. The remainder belong to tribes which speak four different languages and offer only nominal submission to the government. The Kru elect their kings by the selection of the most available man of the royal house. In the Jarroway tribe the king is an absolute monarch for the reign of six years, and is then put to death. Other tribes also follow different customs.

The tribes do not acknowledge the government of Monrovia, because they feel that it does not protect them. By treaty the United States government is required to help the Americo-Liberians against the tribes, and in 1912 this country helped put down a rebellion of the Kru.

The constitution of Liberia has a literacy test, which has heretofore excluded most of the natives from voting, as the central government is unable to undertake their education. The Gibras are being taught by Episcopal missionaries, and the Fullings, who are Mohammedans, are also gaining the franchise. The Kru are very ambitious and are also catching up. There are more than 50 Liberians of the native tribes studying in the United States.

WHEN RAILROADS WERE NEW

Engineers in Charge of Construction Work Had Ideas That Now Seem a Little Peculiar.

Light on strange ideas of pioneer railroad builders was thrown by Edward S. Jovett, general solicitor of the L. & N., in a talk before the Rotary club at Louisville.

"The Lexington-Frankfort line," said he, "was built with longitudinal stone sills capped with a strip of iron, and the numerous curves, which you have all noted, are said to have been purposely introduced upon the theory that they were an advantage in enabling the conductor the more easily to see the rear of his train. The coaches were two-story affairs—women and children below and men above—and the motive power was mules to the top of the hill above Frankfort. The train was let down the hill into the city upon an incline operated by a stationary engine."

"You may be interested, in passing, to learn that with the exception of a few miles near New Orleans, which antedated it about a week, this line from Lexington to Frankfort is the oldest railroad in the United States south of the Ohio and west of the Alleghenies. It was chartered in 1830—very early in railroad history, when we remember that the first railroad in the United States was built in 1825, and the first locomotive engine was operated in 1829."

Health and Height Count.

Every flying man in the United States air service has to undergo a strict medical test periodically in order that he may be classified in one of four grades. "AA" men are the few who can stand air work at altitudes above 20,000 feet. "A" men can stand the strain between 15,000 and 20,000 feet, while the "B" class consists of pilots for duties between 8,000 and 15,000 feet, and the "C" group includes all airmen fit only for service between ground level and 8,000 feet. It has been found that airmen of most robust physique cannot stand the sudden changes of air pressure entailed by diving and rapid climbing for any length of time. Hence the frequent medical examinations, carried out by experts who have drawn up a carefully calculated standard of efficiency.

"I won the woman's championship on our state." "And do you swim?" "The best I ever did was a half mile straight away," she replied. Somewhat fatigued he changed to literature. "And how do you like Kipling?" he asked. "I kipped an hour only yesterday," was her unblushing reply.—Journal of the American Medical Association.

NAPOLEON'S MAXIMS OF WAR

Rules Laid Down by Great Soldier Were Followed Almost Literally by General Foch.

Napoleon was a prolific war maxim-maker. His maxims number more than a hundred. Many of them are as true today as when they were made, observes London Answers.

"In war," said Napoleon, "there is never more than one favorable moment. The great art is to seize it and use it well."

Foch seized the "favorable moment," and in a month not only saved the situation, but turned the tables on the enemy. He "concentrated his troops and acted with energy," as Napoleon laid down.

Commonsense—the application of wisdom to circumstances—is Foch's maxim, as it was Napoleon's. Napoleon has written: "Plans may be modified ad infinitum according to circumstances, the genius of the general, the character of the troops, and the features of the country."

Napoleon insisted upon the study of past campaigns. "The science of strategy," he said, "is to be acquired by experience and studying the campaigns of all great captains."

Foch has been a lifelong student of military history. In the spring he was acting up to Napoleon's dictum—"the measure which is not profoundly meditated in all its details produces no result." When Foch was ready he "dared at the right moment." For 20 years past Foch has been "profoundly meditating" the details of the strategy which has given him such signal success.

RANK HIGH IN POLITENESS

Belgians Unable to Forget Courtesy Though Death in Appalling Form Was Imminent.

The Belgians are the most polite people in the world. Yesterday seven correspondents traveled to Audenarde. We were informed that we might cross the Escant and proceed in the direction of Ghent. As our two motor cars came over the ridge before entering the town they were spotted by an eagle-eyed observer in the German lines, and as we reached the entrance of the town and left from our cars, preparing to enter on foot, a shell whizzed over our heads and exploded dully in a rain-soaked field 50 yards beyond the road. Another followed about the same distance short. Then they came so fast that I lost count. Gas shells they were, and we donned our masks and made for the cars.

The lieutenant in charge of our party bowed to the oldest correspondent and bade him enter the car. The latter, being Belgian, in turn bowing to his neighbor, motioned him into the car. He demurred, and then followed some Alphonse and Gaston moving pictures until someone motioned to me to enter the car. I did. Then they all piled in. And as we raced down the road two Thiel shells spluttered along the muddy road.

Amethysts for Mourning.

Amethysts will be much worn in this country during the post-war period as mourning jewelry. Amethysts and jet are the most widely used mourning stones. The vogue of amethysts in the mourning was fixed after the Franco-Prussian war, when the gems became popular in France and Germany.

An abundance of good amethysts are found in the mountain region of the western United States. The best amethysts come from Cambay, in India, from Ceylon, Persia and Siberia. There are also large amethyst mines in Uruguay. The war, which curtailed imports of all gems to the United States, gave American amethysts a wider market than they ever had before.

Good Reason for Leaving.

"Have you had any experience in newspaper work?" said the editor of a large paper to an agitated little man who had applied for a job.

"I should just think so. I was editor of the Middlesbury Mail until yesterday."

"And what made you leave the paper?"

"Well, it was like this: The chief of police down our way was supposed to be a dangerous man with a revolver, and so I tried to keep the right side of him. I wrote a paragraph about him, and said he was Middlesbury's greatest asset. The intelligent compositor, of course, left out the 'et' in 'asset,' and that is how it got into the paper."

Gas From Wheat Straw.

One of the scientists of the University of Saskatchewan, who has been experimenting for some time with the manufacture of gas from wheat straw, has been able, by a gas bag attachment of 300 cubic feet capacity, to run his motorcar with perfectly satisfactory results. It is estimated, says the Saskatchewan Herald, that a ton of straw will generate 11,000 to 12,000 cubic feet of gas and that 300 cubic feet of gas is equal to a gallon of gasoline, so that with this hitherto waste product on his hands the farmer will be able to run his car.

Wonderful.

"I like the 'Three Musketeers.' It's a remarkable book."

"And there's the sequel, 'Twenty Years After.'"

"Yes; it is wonderful, too. What impresses me most is that all the principal characters still have the same servants." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Even when money talks a woman isn't apt to give it the last word.

IT PAYS TO READ ADVERTISEMENTS

YOU'VE often heard the saying, "It pays to advertise." That is true. And it also pays to read advertisements—pays you. If you read advertisements consistently for any length of time you will agree that this statement is also true.

It pays you in money saved. There are many real bargains offered from time to time in the advertisements appearing in this paper. Watch for them.

It pays you in satisfaction. When a merchant asks you to come to his store he obligates himself to sell you quality goods "as advertised." You have a right to expect satisfaction from what you buy and you get it.

It pays you in time saved. When you know exactly what you want to buy and where you want to buy it, you don't have to "look around" and waste time finding it.

Don't you want to save money and time? Wouldn't you like to be sure of getting satisfactory service and quality goods every time you go to a store? Then read the advertisements and patronize the stores which can serve you best.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IS CONSTIPATED

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." It should be the first treatment out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is often all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made in the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Heart is Busy Organ.

Your heart is a very busy organ. While you breathe once, it beats four times. At each beat it sends four pounds of blood through your veins and arteries. The weight of the circulating blood is 20 pounds. When you run, your legs and the other parts of your body need more blood, so your heart must pump faster. It is a ceaseless worker.

There isn't much satisfaction in catching a man in a lie when you never believe anything he says anyway.

Lammas Street. Carmarthen (Wales) folks are proud of their Lammas street, whence comes the Welsh name Heol Awst. It is generally known that "Lammas" is a corruption of "Loamass," so called because it was the custom on August 1 to present at church a big strawfruit loaf made from the new corn. The custom still lingers in a Kentish parish, where a sheaf of the new wheat is placed on the altar before the holy communion is celebrated. In Scotland "Lammas" is a quarter-day, and in some rural districts of England there are "Lammas lands." Lammas day is a regular holiday in England.

One Word Spoils All.

"Har, har," said the facetious feller, as he slyly dropped a dime in his waistcoat pocket, "here is where I invest a little money."

Beauty is only skin deep, so why fall in love with a pretty girl? Love is blind anyway.

"INDISPENSIBLE" AFTER 9 YEARS OF INTERNAL BATHS

Mr. Addison I. Williams, Box 1054, Sanford, Fla., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"Regarding the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' I feel it is one of the indispensable articles and should be in every home. I have not taken $10 worth of medicine since obtaining it—about 9 years."

You can be free of biliousness and constipation with all the ills which they produce, by an occasional internal bath. The "J. B. L. Cascade" administers these scientifically, it brings an invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, for 25 years a specialist on internal bathing.

By the proper application of Nature's cure—warm water—it keeps the lower intestines free of all poisonous waste, and permits every function to work in harmony and without clogging—hence makes one consistently bright, capable and well.

Changed Cars.

A little girl was greatly pleased over the opportunity to accompany her mother on a visit to the city, where they spent a few days, and upon her return to her home she said: "Oh, daddy, we had such a nice time; we went in the sleeper and we came home in the sifter."

THOSE 2 WORDS "DOLLARS BACK" GAVE HIM FAITH

Henry Van Dyke, Well Known Milk Dealer, Tells a Striking Nerv-Worth Story.

Nerv-Worth Co.—Before taking Nerv-Worth, in fact ever since I was 17, I had serious stomach trouble. Could not eat cabbage, turnips, corn cakes nor many vegetables, except with serious distress. When I saw that every Nerv-Worth ad. contained the words, "Your dollar back if the tonic does not help you," I concluded that the remedy must have real merit. I bought a bottle of it. The first bottle did me so much good that I felt encouraged to believe it would cure my indigestion if I kept on. So I took Nerv-Worth until four bottles had got in their work against my troubles and NOW I AM CURED. I can digest all those foods which gave me so much distress and can go to bed and sleep like a baby. Nerv-Worth has also banished all my nervousness and sleeplessness. I have taken all kinds of medicines. None gave the satisfaction that Nerv-Worth has.

THE LET-DOWN AFTER THE WAR.

When the strain of the war period ended, many people developed a case of that tired feeling. They were sick of wearisome days and wearisome nights. They hated this continual prodding to exercise thrift, give money, save food, buy bonds, war savings stamps, and many of them see no reason why they should not live just as they did before the war.

There are certain lessons that have been made of the war which they have not forgotten. While this war was not the first of the American people, it was the last of the American people, it was the last of the American people, it was the last of the American people.

Two:—To deal justly with all men. Universal justice produce national unity, and a united nation is a powerful nation.

Three:—To exercise thrift, and save some money each year. This will produce capital that will develop the resources of the country, make it ready for any emergency, and reduce living costs. Buy War Savings Stamps now and support the victory loan in the spring.

Four:—To give some time regularly to promote community causes. The man who lives for himself alone gets no help from other people. If his neighbors are like him, he gets no help from the advance of his community. Support the Newark Chamber of Commerce. It stands for the growth and betterment of this community.

If such ideas have been acquired the war experience has had value.

It is not explained how the railroads and sewers are going to be built if immigration is prohibited, but probably the school teachers, ministers, newspaper reporters and poets will be willing to do it for the wages it pays.

The ex-Kaiser Mr. Hohenzollern is sixty years old. Last Monday was his birthday anniversary. The cable is silent as to the number who called to wish him "many happy returns."

In accordance with the spirit of the times, it is expected that the children will soon demand pay for going to school and will walk out when their demands are not complied with.

Question, if the German people can change over from autocracy to democracy in 50 days, how long will it take them to change from democracy to autocracy again?

Question is asked what will become now of all candidates that used to get by setting 'em up for the boys? Well, it is understood they have contracted for the entire product of the two for five cigar factories.

The fact that the ice dealers will get higher prices next summer on account of the warm winter, doesn't prove that the coal dealers will sell for any less.

After receiving an income about five times what their neighbors get, some people still kick on having to pay a hundred dollars or so income tax.

The people who say the soldiers are sick of their uniforms have not seen the girls at the dance hanging around the men in khaki.

And some folks' theory of reducing the hours of labor is to have the men work eight hours and the women twelve.

The Germans rightly claim their army unbeaten, as it ran so fast no one could catch up with it to beat it.

CRIME WAVE AND DISEASE WAVES.

(Baltimore Sun.)
Is there a crime wave as well as a disease wave spreading over the world just now? We are having our own troubles here in Baltimore, but we are assured that it is not exceptional and not a wave. We have seen on local sidewalks to sustain either the allegation of the denial as to crime totals at present compared with previous years, but certain forms of crime, such as burglaries and holdups, certainly appear to be far above the average.

The same thing seems to be true not only in other American cities but in Paris, where some of the increase is attributed to deserting soldiers and to American crooks. In London there is reported to be an unusual prevalence of "dope" resorts and "patrons" of Opium "joints."

The murder mystery figures prominently in various sections with other happenings in the criminal world. New York has several on hand, the latest being the discovery of the body of a richly dressed woman on the edge of the Palisades, overlooking the Interstate park and almost opposite Spuyten Duyvil. Chicago has one or two mysteries of the same kind, and Richmond, Va., has one of a most sensational character.

Assuming that crime not only seems, but is abnormal in extent at present, is it to be attributed to the unusual opportunities presented in great cities by conditions which have followed the war? Thousands of strangers have been temporarily added to the great centers of population, and crooks may find it easy to conceal themselves in these unknown crowds. In most cases police problems have been multiplied without a corresponding multiplication of the police and detective force.

Is crime catching like influenza, and does a disease wave promote a crime wave? We leave the psychologists to wrestle with these questions.

AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Postmaster General Burleson meets a definite rebuff by the action of the house postoffice committee in declining to approve the resolution of Chairman Moon. If the head of the postoffice department was looking forward to government ownership of telegraphs or telephones his project is nipped at the start.

The Moon resolution, it will be remembered, authorized an extension of government control of wires "until otherwise ordered by congress." It further instructed the postmaster general to make an appraisal of telegraph properties and "to negotiate for the purchase of any or all telephone lines." It was decided that the introduction of this measure meant that Mr. Burleson sought to fix government ownership upon the country, but the inference was at least logical.

Now by a vote of 10 to 8 or 11 to 7—reports differ as to which it was—the Moon committee turns down the measure, and passes in its place a measure calling for an extension of government control only till the end of the present year. Every suggestion of permanent government control or of government ownership is stricken from the measure. Though the vote of the committee was close, there is no reason to believe that a minority report embodying the Burleson-Moon view will meet approval in the house, if one is submitted.

As the matter stands, the postoffice committee is on record as favoring a sufficient extension of government control to permit the creation of proper regulatory legislation by congress and the return of the property to its private owners upon a definite date. It is a proposal that will meet the approval of those who are opposed to government ownership, and will act as a reassuring factor to the country is about to embark upon an experiment of vast possibilities.

There is nothing to indicate that the trend of sentiment through the country is toward government ownership, either of telegraphs, telephones or railroads.

CONQUESTS AND COLONIES.

(Philadelphia Record.)
The purpose of the president in urging that the German colonies be administered by "mandatories" of the League of Nations is the noble one of keeping the great war clear of the element of conquest. On the side of Germany it was a war for conquest. On the side of the allies and America it was primarily a war of self-defense, and it broadened into a war of peoples against kings, or of democracy against autocracy.

We went into the Spanish war with a self-denying ordinance as to Cuba, but we appropriated Porto Rico and the Philippines. The president would have the great war closed without any element of conquest, but with the firm establishment of the right of every people to determine its own destiny.

In the case of countries occupied by a civilized people there is comparatively easy application, though there are few considerable sections of the earth inhabited by people so pure in blood and so homogeneous of race that a boundary line can be drawn around them, leaving out none who should be enclosed, and enclosing no foreign elements.

The German colonies, however, present a very different problem. They are populated almost entirely by aborigines who are either savage or of a very low type of civilization. They cannot govern themselves except by the most primitive methods. What shall be done with them? The president's plan for saving civilization and yet preserving the character of the war as a war for freedom, and not for conquest, is to have the former German colonies in Africa and the South Pacific administered by the nations or colonies in the best position to do so, but not as sovereigns; they are to act as mandataries of the League of Nations.

The example of Austria as the mandatary of the congress of Berlin for the administration of Bosnia and the Herzegovina is not encouraging. But this peace conference is as different from the congress of Berlin as the allied nations are different from Austria. We need not be discouraged by the action of Austria, backed by the "shining sword" and the "shining armor" of Germany, in embroiling the two Turkish provinces assigned to it as trustee.

The demand of Australia for sovereignty over New Guinea and the Bismarck Islands and of the Union of South Africa for sovereignty over German Southwest Africa is perfectly intelligible and defensible. But if the Commonwealth and the Union administer the neighboring regions as mandataries of the League of Nations they will be able to protect themselves against any inimical occupation or use of these fragments of German colonialism.

The financial administration of these dependencies would come more easily than it bought in, but if the League of Nations shall have an executive agency always in session it might not be difficult to surmount this difficulty.

If it be true that the British cabinet rejects the demands of the British dependencies and accepts President Wilson's plan it is the strongest possible evidence of its desire to obliterate no selfish interests in the way of carrying out the magnificent plan for international brotherhood and the presentation of peace.

World's Deaf-Mutes.

The amateur student of statistics will find plenty to ponder over in the figures as to the distribution of deaf-mutes throughout the world. A recent report on this phase of the census of the United States gives the proportion as 128 per 100,000, and shows that in the group of countries whose figures is 50 or less all are English-speaking except Holland.—Oregonian.

Why Delay?

"Take this medicine," said the young doctor. "If it doesn't cure you, come back in a few days and I shall give you something that will." The patient pocketed the dose reluctantly. In a few moments he returned. "If you don't mind, doc, I'll take some of that that will cure me right away."

The whole structure of good citizenship rests upon a knowledge of the English language. How can one who can not read or speak our language be expected to understand our government? Daily Health Talks
A WORD ABOUT THE KIDNEYS
BY DOCTOR WATSON.

People are easily frightened when they think something is the matter with their lungs or heart, and well they may be; but few people understand the dangers of diseased kidneys. These organs have a duty of vital importance to perform, and if they are diseased, there is no telling how or where the symptoms may appear. The kidneys are filters, and when they are healthy they remove the poisons from the blood and purify it. When the kidneys are diseased, the poisons are spread everywhere, and one of these poisons is uric acid. The uric acid is carried all through the system and deposited in various places, in the form of urate salts—in the feet, ankles, wrists and back—often forming bags under the eyes. Sometimes the resulting trouble is called rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica and backache. Finally, come stone in the bladder, diabetes and Bright's disease.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., in recent years, discovered that a certain combination of remedies would dissolve uric acid (urate salts) in the system. He found this combination to be harmless, so that he made it up in tablets, of double strength, and called them Auric Tablets. They dissolve uric acid in the human system as hot coffee dissolves sugar. If you have uric acid troubles, don't delay in taking Auric Tablets, which can be secured in the drug stores. You can write Dr. Pierce, too, and he will tell you what to eat and how to live so that more uric acid will not form in your system. Dr. Pierce will not charge for this advice.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The members of the Missionary Society of North Franklin will be entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. B. Dumm.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The friends of Thomas Lamb, 557 Maple avenue, surprised him Friday evening at his home. Mr. Lamb has been with the American Bottle Company for the past twenty years and resigned to accept a position in Mansfield, O. The evening was spent in playing cards. Supper was served by Mrs. Lamb, assisted by Mrs. George Ward and Miss Lottie Fendon and Miss Helen Lamb. After supper, Dr. J. G. Shirer, on behalf of the boys, presented Mr. Lamb with a Masonic ring, and Mr. Lamb expressed his thanks for the same.

During the evening the party was entertained by singing by Mrs. Lamb, Miss Lottie Fendon, Miss Helen Lamb, Carl Helms, Q. Martindale, Walter Coffman, Wayne Baird and Ed Hirst, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The guests will not forget the song by Miss Helen Lamb, who received great applause, which did not cease until the little girl sang an encore.

The following guests were present: Dr. J. G. Shirer, J. A. Warthen, W. L. Bainbridge, David Murphy, C. W. Martin, H. T. Witte, Dugan Paul, C. D. Dele, Walter Coffman, Edward Hurst, Q. He was united in marriage to Miss Lucinda Jane Cuthbert, October 14, 1872. To them were born eight children, seven sons and one daughter. The wife and three sons have preceded him to the grave. It is written, "Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord and whose hope the Lord is." "And blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Mr. Hupp was a kind, devoted father, a good neighbor and esteemed by those who knew him. Death has called away our loved one in the lonely grave to lie. Yet his soul is resting in the sky. Dearest Lisle, how you suffered. 'Till God called you from your pain. To that bright and holy mansion. Through endless years to reign. He saw him suffering; heard his sighs. With throbbing heart and weeping eyes. But now he calmly sleeps at last. All grief, all pain, all suffering past. God called him home to be at rest. 'Tis hard to break the tender cord. When love has bound the heart. 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the word. "Must we forever part?" Oh, how sadly do we miss you, None but living tongues can tell. But in heaven we hope to meet you. For God doeth all things well.

Violet Cramer. In memory of Mrs. Violet Cramer, who died February 2, 1915. Gone to rest after many years of toil and suffering, patiently borne, sadly missed by a large family of children who will ever cherish her memory as a kind and loving mother. Sleep on, dear mother, the time will not be long till we, too, will have gone to meet you in heaven. The Children.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.) Granville, Feb. 3.—The Granville chapter Daughters of the American Revolution met with Mrs. Mary Nichol Jones, Saturday evening, January 31. The following officers were elected for the coming year. Regent, Mrs. C. B. Slack; vice regent, Mrs. L. A. Austin; secretary, Mrs. J. E. Shephardson; corresponding secretary, Miss Blanche Horton; register, Mrs. W. B. Clemons; historian, Mrs. Frank Ferguson; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Nichols Jones. Plans were perfected for the celebration of George Washington's birthday, Friday evening, February 28. Both members and guests are to appear in colonial costumes. There are many organizations in Granville who are proud of their service flags, but the Daughters of the American Revolution are the proud possessors of the most unique flag, a real work of art, of which Mrs. Lena Norris Shephardson is the designer, maker and owner. There are represented upon this flag two stars for members—Mrs. Janet Jones and Miss Clara Wright—both doing overseas duty in the government service. Two husbands—Dr. E. P. Cook, stationed at Waco, Tex., and Prof. Willis Chamberlain, stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. There are nine stars represented by stars upon this flag—Charles Belt, Ewart Carney (overseas); Harry Carney (overseas); Morris Cochran, Owen Cook (overseas); James Huston (ensign); Arthur Wright Jones (overseas); Arthur Kinney (overseas); Kenneth Ullman. Mrs. Shephardson says the co-incidence of 13 active people in government service with the 13 stars which appear on the symbolic pin the daughters wear—the insignia of the organization—so she designed the service flag from the pin. There is a large field of white satin in the center of which a large wheel worked out in gold, the distaff in a silver tone of satin, with letters around the rim of the wheel embroidered in blue. These letters spelling the words: "Daughters of the American Revolution." The whole bordered with red satin. Mrs. Shephardson has many relatives who have answered their country's call in all the wars. She has Revolutionary and War of 1812 ancestors. In the Civil war an uncle and her father, Albert Norris of Granville, once a prisoner in southern camps, and a survivor of the ill-fated steamer "Sultana." In the Spanish war her husband, Prof. J. E. Shephardson, and a brother, Walter E. Norris of Ostrule; in the world war, Captain A. M. Davidson, a brother-in-law, and John I. Price, a nephew, a survivor of the ill-fated ocean steamer "Westgate," as he was making his second trip to France. Mr. Price's life was saved by his being hooked upon an airplane box, where he was found hours after his ship went down, in an unconscious condition.

The Granville Mothers' club will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Messick where Prof. F. G. Detweiler will address the members on "A Community Program" for Granville. This club, organized by Mrs. C. D. Coons, has acted as child welfare committee for the council of national defense in Granville township, under whose auspices the weighing and measuring of children for the state was accomplished last summer. The post war activities of the state council include child welfare among the most important, of those which will continue to engage the attention of the women of Ohio.

Miss Rachel Colwell, head of the department of domestic science in the University of West Virginia, who was a "flu" victim during the winter at her home in Morgantown, is enjoying a brief vacation at the Colwell home in South Prospect street.

W. P. Ullman, who was called to Bluffton, Ind., last Thursday by the death of a relative, returned home today, having spent Sunday at his old home-town, Loudenville.

The senior organ recital of Denison conservatory to be given in Federal hall tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, promises a musical treat to friends of the department.

Denison vs. Cincinnati, Thursday evening, February 6.

"The Masquers," Friday evening, February 7.

Active members of the Women's Music club have been invited to hold the annual business meeting at the home of Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh on Prospect hill, Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock.

The following invitations have been received by many men of the village: "S. S. Chamberlain lodge of Phi Gamma Delta will be at home to the men of Granville, Friday evening, February 7. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Haig of Newark, were dinner-guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McClain in Columbus street. Mr. Haig and Mrs. McClain are old army comrades.

Mrs. John McClain, Mrs. H. G. Van Kirk and Mrs. John S. Graham will attend the home mission district convention of the Methodist church in Columbus, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mercurial Intensification.

A stock solution of mercuric chloride is a convenient material for mercurial intensification; the negative being immersed in this until bleached right through, then well washed and darkened with dilute ammonia. Instead of the stock solution consisting of the chloride by itself, it has been pointed out by Vogel and others that it is an advantage to dissolve the mercuric chloride in a five per cent solution of common salt, to each ounce of which ten drops of strong hydrochloric acid have been added. A convenient strength for the chloride is one of ten grains to the ounce of liquid. If the solution is too strong, it will cause reticulation of the negative.

As the Gang Saw Them.

Three little boys were calling each other by the names of "Red," "Squinch" and "Bone." When asked why they did so, Squinch spoke for them. "It's our names what matches our looks best to the gang."

New Note in Street Music.

A new note in street music is struck in the Strand, where a performer on a piano-organ exhibits a placard stating that he is an ex-convict who has done four years. There are also statements as to police supervision and the instrumentist's desire to do well; and, as a guarantee of good faith, the placard concludes with the address of his firm of "editors and of his medical attendant."

—London Chronicle.

Full Explanation.

Arnold could not bear to have anything that smacked of femininity applied to himself or his tiny baby brother. One day Arnold was keeping his eye on the baby carriage while the mother stepped into the apartment. A woman passing looked into the carriage and seeing the infant said: "Isn't she a sweet child?" Arnold, indignant, replied: "He ain't no she; it's a him."

Youngest Famous Flag.

The youngest among distinguished flags is that which was made in the old flag house, Philadelphia, in 1915. Each of the stars in this notable flag was supplied by the governor of one of the States of the Union. The flag was unfurled at the official opening of the Panama canal in 1915. It was released by President Woodrow Wilson, who pressed an electric button sending it to the breeze. At the same time "The Star-Spangled Banner" was sung in almost every town and city of the United States, sending a thrill of patriotic impulse over the nation.—J. A. Stewart, in Living Church.

Zanesville: W. E. Guthrie, one of the trustees of the Avondale Children's home since its founding, has tendered his resignation because of declining health.

Zanesville: Six hours before he could arrive home Private Fred Hann's mother, Mrs. Fannie E. Hann, died. One half hour after his honorable discharge from Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., he was on his way to his mother's bedside but he failed to arrive until six hours after her death.

Cambridge: Ben Maxwell, a minor, arrested at Dayton for robbing the Atkins' jewelry store here, January 19, pleaded guilty to the indictment in common pleas court Friday and was sentenced to the state reformatory at Mansfield to serve from one to 15 years.

Coshocton: A young girl has been collecting money here to pay the salary of Rev. J. M. McVey, claiming that because of the influenza epidemic the congregation was unable to meet the obligation. Several good sized contributions were made before it was learned that the minister had been paid and the appeal was false.

"To me a woman is a thing of beauty," exclaimed the poet. "And do you agree that a thing of beauty is a joy forever?" demanded the cynic. "Well, at least until she gets old," the poet.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.
Mr. Stewart's stern visage, the deadly glint in his grim, gray eyes, his muscular build and suggestion of rugged, primitive power appear to be a combination for deadly gun play only. Yet he has, through his superb, histrionic powers and wholesome laughing spirit, made a success of his recent light western roles. He is to appear at the Grand theatre tonight in another of this original series, "By Proxy," wherein he proves to be a cowboy match maker who marries the girl himself.

Serial Stars in Feature.
Hedda Nova and Frank Glendon, serial stars in Vitaphone's great success, "The Woman in the Web," are seen in the featured roles in "By the World Forgot," which will be the attraction in the Grand theatre Tuesday and Wednesday.

GEM.
From merry hearted girlhood on a ranch high in the California mountains to a womanhood of beautiful gowns and real love affairs, dainty Vivian Martin is as winsome as ever in her latest Paramount photoplay, "The Sunset Trail," which is appearing today at the Gem theatre.

Wednesday.
Tom Mix returns to the Gem theatre next Wednesday in the new Wm. Fox play, "Mr. Logan, U. S. A.," that is bound to enhance his already brilliant reputation. In his new play Tom Mix is a secret service man who braves the scorn of the girl he loves to foil a plot of German agents to instigate strikes among the miners of the west. Branded as a slacker, he saves the mine from destruction and justifies himself in the eyes of his sweetheart.

ALHAMBRA.

Adele Blenau is the daughter and sole heiress of a wealthy Louisiana doctor whose clever and she has been in hospital work. Young and beautiful, Adele is among the first American nurses to cross to France. Before leaving she meets Captain Fraser, a young English army officer who has been to Washington on a diplomatic errand and is returning to the front. Captain von Schulling of the German embassy in Washington is Fraser's enemy and would be rival for Adele's hand. As tireless nurse and angel of comfort to the wounded, Adele is the idol of the men "over there."

Darst, gardener, formerly of Newark, residing near Zanesville, Mr. Darst and his family were stricken with influenza in November and inability to secure nurses rendered the fight for life doubly hard. His sister, Miss Nellie Darst, Mrs. Clarence Moody, and Mrs. F. A. Pace of Newark are at his bedside.

Condition Shows Improvement.
The condition of Walter C. Symons, who underwent a serious operation at Mt. Carmel hospital, is improved, and he hopes to be moved to his home the latter part of the month. Mr. W. C. Symons, who has also been ill, returned to her home in North Fifth street, Saturday evening.

Kemper is conducting the meeting, assisted by Prof. Good, singing evangelist who will remain throughout the meetings. Meetings are held mornings at 10 o'clock and in the evening at seven, the sermon at 7:30.

Meets Pal on Transport.
Harry Rosebrough, well known musician of this city, spent Sunday with relatives here and returned to Camp Sherman today to be mustered out of the army. Rosebrough spent eight months in England and France. He went over with Lawrence Pfeiffer and never saw him after landing. When on the ship returning to America he bumped into Pfeiffer and they held a reunion. Rosebrough states that there were two other Licking county boys aboard the ship whom he met but could not remember their names.

Reports Regal Sport.
Curry Bricker of the City Drug Store, who is spending several weeks in Florida, has written friends here that he has been having splendid luck in the deep sea fishing and after landing a couple of monsters went out the next day and caught and weighed black bass weighing between two and five pounds each.

Soldier In Court.

Gibson will remain in the employ of Curry.

Has Operation.
A. Valentine of Huron county, who was operated upon at Grant hospital, Columbus, Thursday, has been brought to Newark and is resting comfortably in his apartments here. Dr. R. R. Kahle performed the operation.

What Is in Your Heart?
It is not always necessary to make a conscious effort to help others. If we are trying our hardest to do right, helpfulness will radiate from our lives, as heat radiates from a fire. If there is kindness and sympathy in our hearts, our very silence will be eloquent. The greater part of helpfulness is the conscious sort which is the direct result of our being what we are.

For Employers' Consideration.
Men can have no hope in their work while they live purely from hand to mouth, and you cannot spread habits of intelligence among the laboring class if their means are too poor or their leisure too short to enable them to participate in the culture that is going on around them.—Exchange.

Give the Best That's in You.
The man who persistently and determinedly fills his position in the best possible way will eventually succeed from a monetary standpoint, not to mention the good he is doing by setting such an example, and his infinite gain in character and self-respect.

Wind That Scorchers.
The name "harmattan" has been given to a dry hot wind which blows from the interior of Africa toward the Atlantic during December, January and February. Every plant, every bit of grass and leaf in its course is withered as though it had been seared by heat from a furnace.

Alibi for the Doctor.
A Mexican by the name of Braulio Hernandez, aged twenty-three years, died in a little carhouse down by the depot. The man never had a doctor and so no one knows what killed him.—San Miguel (Cal.) Examiner.

Egyptians Invented Bells.
The invention of bells is attributed to the Egyptians, who are credited with having made use of percussion instruments to announce the sacred fetes of Osiris.

Deep Sea Stuff.
He looked her over and asked her to sell the sea of matrimony with him. When she said O. K. (or words to that effect) they launched out with a little smack. A wave of color swept over her cheeks and her eyes swam in tears.

Some Rats.
Lantz makes the amazing estimate that the progeny of a single couple (of rats), if undisturbed, would number 20,000,000 in three years, and this number is even below the theoretic figures.—Scientific American Supplement.

Versatile Nut Tree.
In addition to nuts used in confectionery the Indian cashew tree yields an insect-repelling gum, a juice that makes an indelible ink and three kinds of oil; one edible and the others used to tan fishing nets and preserve wood.

Passions' Growth.
Let me not forget that the power and joy of sacrifice grow upon those who exercise it. Pure passions grow as well as dark ones.—W. L. Watkinson.

Life's Great Lesson.
The lesson that life dips into us with such ceaseless iteration that it seems impossible that any of us could ever fail to hear it is: To make haste to be kind.—Rhoda Broughton.

Bank-Note Engravers.

ATHLETE IS NOW VINDICATED

War Has Proved That Sensible Devotion to Sports and Games Was Time Well Spent.

Much was said before the war in depreciation of the young man who devoted himself to athletics, remarks the Louisville Courier-Journal. His early death was prophesied by the easy-going slug of a fellow who took his exercise with his right elbow and his recreation at bar and caravansary. Whenever an athlete died his muscular development was set down as the cause of his untimely end.

It has been made plain by the war that the athletic youth is the preferable youth to fight the enemy. It never was proved that he was less able than others to fight life's battles in the figurative sense of the phrase, or that he died sooner than the round-punched, soft-armed, flabby-legged man.

In the army and in the navy athletic sports and games are encouraged, promoted, valued. Swimming, tennis, boxing, rowing, football, are regarded as being worth more than the time that is devoted to them. Aviators who are supple and well set up, as well as young and courageous, are the most promising candidates. It has been found that the "light hands" of the man who has ridden to hounds are as valuable in manipulating an airplane as they are in taking a spirited horse over the hunting fields and over fences. Physical training of every sort is a good asset for the young man, and how much more easily the candidate who is forty or beyond has fitted himself for military service if he has kept up since college days the habit of exercise and out-of-door life.

IN ABE MARTIN'S COUNTRY

Where Wisdom Centers and "the World Do Move," but in Decidedly Leisurely Manner.

All Brown county seemed to be waiting for us when late we reached the "picnic grounds." Abe Martin types hung round the roadway to the grove. Ginger pop, orange cider, ice cream cones were disappearing down warm and thirsty throats. All through the grove there were grateful voices talking gently of the saving of the corn crop by the rains. Coats and collars were not as numerous as on Fifth avenue, but kind hearts and friendly visiting and exchange of confidences were as evident as anywhere in all the world. Veterans of '61 were linking up their war with this, and one elaborately whiskered farmer earnestly confided to me: "I fought four years to make good Lincoln's word, and I guess our boys today will stand by Woodrow."

Honest, homely, shrewd and wise, they talked Abe Martin's language: "It's nice 't live in a little town where you don't have 't give somebody a dime to hold your overcoat." "A kicker is nearly allers wrong." "A sympathizer is a feller that's fer you as long as it don't cost anything." "Politics is just one 5-cent cigar after another."—Lyman P. Powell in the Living Church.

The Irregular Males.
Oliver Iselin, on leave in Toledo, was praising the American girls engaged in war work overseas.

"And they're good girls," he said, "better girls, I believe, than our country ever turned out before."

"They're certainly better than the old ladies, male and female, who spy on them on the pretense of looking after their morals."

"One of these old ladies, an elderly New York broker, was talking to a canteen girl in Paris."

"Yes," the girl said, "I adore my work. The only thing I complain of is the irregularity of the mails."

"The old broker heaved a sigh and tried to take the girl's hand, but she drew it away."

"Ah, yes," he said. "The males were irregular, too, in my young days. As we used to put it—Never trust a female too far nor a male too near."

Preserve the Trees.
Probably the most highly prized tree in the world is the avocado pear tree in California, which returns an annual income of $3,000, and was once insured for $30,000. As to trees in general, immediate money returns supercede, in most minds, sentiment or natural beauty. A "landscape robbery" which caused the "robbers" no compunctions, was the cutting of a splendid yellow poplar which for several generations had been a landmark among the Cumberland hills. The forest monarch, yielded over 7,000 feet of first-class lumber, valued at $11,000. There was no one to cry "Woodman, spare that tree!" whose protest counted against its destruction. The countryside has lost a natural beauty never to be restored; the owner has money in his pocket. As Joyce Kilmer wrote: "Only God can make a tree."

Damascus Oldest City.
The tradition of the East, which so often has proved full of historical meat, sets down Damascus as the oldest city on earth still inhabited by man. It was a capital before Abraham. The old Babylonian ideograph indicating Damascus has been translated "fortress of the Amorites," and there is ample reason for admitting this rendering. Thus Damascus becomes the stronghold of the legendary first inhabitants of Syria reputed to have been as tall as cedars, and so set down in the Bible. Their name occurs in the first Babylonian inscriptions, dating back to 2100 B. C.

Efforts are being made to revive the broom making industry on the farms.

The Milky Way.
The arch of the Milky Way stretches across the evening sky from east to west, rising between Orion and Gemini, where Jupiter seems a gorgeous diamond depending from its laces; passing through the golden chain of Cassiopeia in the zenith, and descending to the western horizon between Vega, the dazzling gem in Apollo's lyre.

Chance for Trade in Japan.
The native Japanese door slides on a rail or track, and is said to answer all purposes, but despite the fact that the scheme is perfectly satisfactory the importation of door hinges is increasing. The Japanese are very ready to adopt almost any of the methods or implements which come from the western world.

Snakes in the Ocean.
There may or may not be such a thing as a sea-serpent, but there certainly are snakes in the ocean. There are numerous varieties of small snakes that live in all oceans; then there are the eels, of course, which go from the salt water to the fresh. In the waters around southern Asia there lives the banded sea snake, which has stripes around its body and broad tail, and can swim with great speed.

Eraser Hint.
When the eraser becomes well worn it is apt to smear the paper when it is used to erase a letter. To avoid this, simply rub a little chalk on the edge of the eraser and no smear will occur; and the erasure of the letter will be done much more quickly as well as more neatly.

Hunting Trouble.
When a man is looking for trouble he doesn't have to go to the dictionary to find it. He can get it in the telephone directory.

Concerning Minds.
Minds, like the eyes and the hearing, are apt to be such alike. They become strong and weak by observation.

Somewhat Similar.
"I wonder how it feels to feed my meat to wild animals?" remarked Mr. Noogins, with a smile. "That's a curious notion. What prompted it?" "I was just thinking how my small in come melts in before the hungry onslaughts of the collectors."

Private employes of agencies through out the country.

Antiquity of Gloves.
Gloves are of great antiquity, having been worn in England as long ago as in Saxon times. Practically the only change which there has ever been in styles of gloves has been in their decoration. Sometimes they were richly adorned with jewels, £5 having been paid for a pair in the fourteenth century.

Power for Good and Evil.
Into the hands of every individual is given a marvelous power for good or for evil—the silent, unconscious, unseen influence of his life. This is simply the constant radiation of what a man really is, not what he pretends to be. Life is a state of constant radiation and absorption; to exist is to radiate; to exist is to be the recipient of radiations.

Artificial Pearls.
Essence d'Orient, from which artificial pearls are made, is produced from the brilliant scales of the ablet, or blay, a small fish with a green back and a white belly. About four thousand are required to produce a pound of scales, which gives a quarter of a pound of the essence.

A Pen Joke.
A boy who is a firm believer in the "raise-a-pig" plan has a porker which he has christened "Pig," because he says the pig runs so freely from the pen.

Proud Boast Belongs to Spain.
The saying that the "sun never sets on the empire," did not originate with England, but with Spain. It was in 1623 that the sentence was applied to Spain, which at that period was a great empire.

Competitive Accomplishment.
"My daughter is taking fencing lessons, and you should see how she can fight." "That's nothing. You ought to see how mine can throw a fl."

Dad Knew.
"And, what are the silent watches of the night?" "They are the ones which their owners forget to wind, in."

Optimistic Thought.
Keep good company and you'll be of them.

"Carroll is a comparatively new custom in spite of the fact that the word has been altered to it ever since the world was young."

Snakes in Ireland.
There are snakes in Ireland, but only two or three species. The popular idea that Ireland is snakeless arose from an error made by a compositor in the translation of Horebrow's "History of Ireland" in 1758. The compositor made "Ireland" into "Ireland," and the sentence has remained. Ireland is too cold for snakes.

Too Cannibalistic, Perhaps.
"A Russian announces that donkeys are 'good to eat,'" remarks the Carthage Free Press. "When it gets to that point, we know of one person who is going to sign up to observe 'meatless days.'"—Kansas City Times.

Find the Right Handle.
Everything, as Epictetus once said, has two handles. Taking hold of it by one, we find it unbearable; taking hold by the other, we discover it to be easily and pleasantly borne.

Responsibility.
If we are not responsible for the thoughts that pass our doors, we are at least responsible for those we admit and entertain.—Charles B. Newcomb.

Several Guesses Allowed.
"Copper to Remain Fixed."—Puzzle headline for gentle readers to solve. Guess whether it refers to the copper's post, or something else again.—Buffalo Express.

Impossible.
Huh—"I don't believe in parading my virtues." Wife—"You couldn't, anyway. It takes quite a number to make a parade."—Boston Transcript.

Prevents Cracking.
When pouring boiling milk or water in a tumbler or glass dish stand the tumbler or glass on a knife and the glass will neither break or crack.

Two Bites and a Sup.
While many of our familiar comparisons have been scrapped by modern conditions, new comparisons are taking their places—for example: "As quickly over as a movie meal."—Boston Transcript.

Thinking First.
If thou thoughtst twice before thou speakest once, thou wilt speak twice the better for it.—William Penn.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

The Licking County War Savings Stamp sale for the week ending January 30 was $13,116, making a total of $46,001 for the month.

The Franklin National bank, First National bank, Park National bank, Newark Trust company, Licking County Bank and Trust company, Kirtlandville Savings bank, Alexandria bank First National of Utica, and the Utica Savings bank, last week sold $3001 worth of War Savings Stamps.

Granville made a national record in the war savings campaign last year and the interest taken by Granville people in the 1918 issue of W. S. S. indicates another smashing season. Postmaster John Geach had cash sales in January amounting to $5156.

The war savings committee desires the home addresses of the following named purchasers of 200 War Savings Stamps in order that membership certificates may be sent: Mrs. J. C. Stock, Charles Nesbit, Mrs. W. H. Miller, Eli Myers, J. H. Moore, H. S. Pyle, George Strickle, Mary Wilson. Address C. H. Spencer, Newark, O.

Postmasters and bankers are requested to send names and addresses of each purchaser of 200 W. S. S. to the county chairman. All who bought 200 W. S. S. of the 1918 issue are permitted to buy not to exceed 200 stamps of the present series. A few days ago one man bought $1000 worth of stamps for each member of his family. There's a good example to follow.

Only two states of the Union reached their 1918 quota of W. S. S.—Ohio and Nebraska. Ohio sold more stamps than New York, more than Pennsylvania, more than Illinois, and Licking county people helped to make this record by greatly oversubscribing the quota of $1,336,000 established for this county.

The Newark schools are entering into the new W. S. S. campaign in earnest and will, no doubt, exceed last year's splendid record.

The value of a War Savings Stamp never grows less. Its value grows from month to month. You can get your money, if necessary, in 10 days; no chance to lose. W. S. S. are tax-free. February price $4.13. Cultivate the habit of thrift and buy W. S. S.

Relief in 21 Hours, Simple Home Medicine Did It.

Mr. H. C. Hood, chief operator, F. C. R. R., Birmingham, Ala., writes: "I had a year's Menthos-Lavone for a cough and I found it the premier medicine for that ailment. I had a cough for three months and made me a syrup of your Menthos-Lavone and I got permanent relief in twenty-four hours."

Menthos-Lavone is a richly concentrated mixture of wild cherry, Tolu, Gualuba, Menthol, Ammonium chloride, Cassia, etc. Sold by good druggists in 2 1/2 ounce bottles. Mixed at home with simple syrup, it makes a full pint. A wonderful medicine, wonderfully cheap, and guaranteed most effective for colds, coughs, catarrh, hoarseness, difficult breathing, etc. Advt.

NOT ABOVE CARRYING BUNDLE

Spirit Shown by New York Man May Explain Why He Has Become a Millionaire.

The following story, which suggests that some millionaires are no more "stuck up" than the rest of us, is printed in Forbes Magazine: A Broadway (New York city) street car conductor was about to forbid a man carrying a huge roll of carpet to enter his car—the bundle was so huge that the conductor feared it would block the aisle. The bearer of the burden, however, smiled at him so amiably and deposited his long parcel promptly at the far corner of the platform that the conductor hadn't the heart to remonstrate. This was at Thirty-third street, opposite a department store. At Forty-second street the passenger shouldered his bundle and walked off. He carried it to one of New York's newest skyscrapers and immediately proceeded to lay it upon the floor of one of the reception rooms there.

He was the owner of the skyscraper! He was Irving T. Bush, millionaire creator of the famous Bush terminal, a veritable city within the city of Brooklyn, owner of a large shipyard and of other projects.

To friends who chaffed him, Mr. Bush explained that the rug caught his fancy while in the store, and he particularly wished to have it laid down before a reception that was to be held at the Buyers' club (in the Bush building) that day. But as the store could not make immediate delivery, why, the only and the natural thing for him to do was to shoulder it himself. The spectacle of a millionaire lugging along such a burden in a street car and in the street did not strike this particular millionaire as in any way funny.

HAD GLIMPSE INTO FUTURE

One hundred and four years ago, at this season, the war of 1812 was practically over. Peace was signed, at Ghent, on the evening of December 24, 1814; and then things moved fast, according to existing standards. On December 28, one of the American secretaries left Ghent for London, and on January 2, 1815, he left England for New York, where he arrived some time in February, and his news was immediately delivered to the citizens by printed handbills. Other cities, however, had to remain in ignorance during the time it would take a fast rider to urge his galloping horse over the roads between them and New York. The telegraph was not yet invented, although Joseph Glanville, a seventeenth century preacher with an interest in the possibilities of invention, had told the Royal society that "to confer, at the distance of the Indies, by sympathetic conveyances, may be as usual to future times as to us in literary correspondence." Glanville, by the way, also told the Royal society that "to those who come after us, it may be as ordinary to buy a pair of wings to fly into the remotest regions, as now a pair of boots to ride a journey."

Recalls Wasted Time.

"I happened to be late at a meeting the other day and somebody asked who Ann Brown was and I didn't say a word and I happened to think just then that somebody is always late to everything and that somebody is always early to everything. If I give a formal dinner party somebody always comes early when I'm in the dining room giving my final orders to the butler, and then again after everything is all ready I have to wait 15 minutes for a tardy guest and get real fussy but must not show it. I'll bet," says Ann, "that I've wasted thousands of hours of my young life being on time for engagements of all kinds."—Exchange.

Bees Move 150,000 Tons.

The honey crop of the United States for 1918 having been estimated by the department of agriculture at about 250,000,000 pounds, the American Botanist estimates that as the nectar of flowers does not become honey until worked over and partly evaporated, the bees must move as much as 150,000 tons of material to produce this crop, exclusive of the honey eaten by themselves. Of this product, about one-half is from the nectar of white clover, with two other leguminous plants—alfalfa and sweet clover—as the next important sources.

Forest Hospitality.

One morning our company was drilling, when a Boche plane flew over. We usually go into the woods when they are first sighted, but this time the captain said: "Everybody down and lie still." Then he added: "No use making a break for the woods. He'll see where we go and probably bomb us tonight."

An ailing private in the rear rank replied: "Well, sir, let's run into somebody else's woods."—Ontario Post.

SPENDS 5 HOURS UNDER STAFF CAR SHELLS FALL NEAR

Son of Newark Minister Has Harrowing Experience But Escapes With His Life

Is Awarded War Cross But Contracts Rheumatism From Exposure During Ordeal

Five hours under an overturned army staff car with enemy shells bursting intermittently and in close proximity, seems like an eternity, and the fact that one is partly submerged in a pool of water does not add to one's peace of mind, according to Carlos Hanks, Jr., son of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Hanks of Granville street. Young Hanks describes his experiences in a letter to his father, who is pastor of Plymouth Congregational church. A telegram received by Rev. Mr. Hanks Thursday, announced the boy's arrival at Hoboken, N. J.

His letter is answer to an inquiry addressed to him by his father, asking for details of the awarding of a war cross, an account of which was printed in a Michigan paper and which Hanks had neglected to mention.

He explained that he had not told of this experience before because he wished to spare his parents the worry which might follow their knowledge that he had been in great peril.

Hanks said he had been transferred from the 46th aero squadron to the position of driver of staff officer's car. At the time of his experience he was driving the car alone when a shell practically demolished and overturned the machine pinning Hanks under the wreck.

One arm was held fast under a part of the overturned car and his body rested in a pool of water. German shells burst close by and Hanks said he was really frightened, not knowing what moment one would hit his wreck and blow it to atoms.

He said he realized that his only hope of rescue was to attract the attention of passing trucks. With this idea in view he managed to secure his pistol from its holster but before he could use it he lost consciousness.

When he regained his senses several hours later he was able to see two stars through the hole where the steering column passed before the German shell tore it from its place. Then he heard the sound of an approaching truck. He recovered his pistol and waited until the truck had approached close to his overturned truck and then he fired three shots through the bottom of his truck. A few minutes more and he had been dragged from beneath the wreck.

The hours he spent in this cramped position made his legs stiff and sore and he was unable to walk. He was rescued on the truck whose crew had rescued him and the journey continued until another truck was met, when he was transferred and sent to the rear areas and to his billet.

The soldier declares that his greatest worry was from gas-shells, a number of which burst near. He managed to adjust his gas-mask with his one hand and protected himself from the deadly fumes.

"I don't see anything in this experience to warrant a war cross unless it is the fact that my truck was destroyed and I came out alive," Hanks declares.

His commanding officer recommended him for an officers' training school and while he was there he was seized with an attack of rheumatism and was sent to a hospital for a period of seven weeks. The signing of the armistice found him in the hospital.

When young Hanks enlisted he was
